Timeline Important Information – Événements importants de la ligne de temps

Place the important events in chronological order on the timeline.
Replace les événements importants en ordre chronologique sur la ligne de temps.

John Cabot sails to Canada in 1497 and claims Canada as a new territory for England. He returns later that year to fish off the coast of Newfoundland. John Cabot sails again in 1498 but is lost at sea.	Jacques Cartier explores the coast of Newfoundland, PEI, and New Brunswick. He claims this land for France in 1534. A year later he sails up the St Laurence and makes contact and trades with Mi'kmaq. He gives Canada its name from the Native word Kanata.
1000 – Lief Erikson (Vikings) first visit the shores of Newfoundland and Labrador. This is considered the first contact between a European and an Indigenous community.	In 1653, Sir Humphrey Gilbert claimed Newfoundland as England's first overseas colony.
Martin Frobisher of England made the first attempt to find the Northwest Passage. He landed on Baffin Island and a few of his men were captured by Inuit. He left and returned a second and third time convinced there was gold in Canada. All he found was iron pyrite.	Samuel de Champlain was an explorer and cartographer. He began to explore Canada in 1603. He explored the coastline of Atlantic Canada. He also explored the Great Lakes and made alliances with Indigenous groups that were enemies with the Haudenosaunee.