Analyzing a News Article

Answer the following questions about the news article you just read.

1) What is the headline of the article?

2) Who is the author of the article?

3) When was it published?

4) Does the lead covers the "five W's"? (If needed, see previous "Fiche d'apprentissage" for more on this.)If not, which are missing?

5) Which three of the six values of news writing seems more relevant in the writing of this article? (If needed, see previous "Fiche d'apprentissage" for more on this.)

6) Is there a "hook" in the first paragraph? IF so, what is it?

7) Does the information seems less and less important as you read lower in the article?
